Fishing for Straws and Minnows.

By neglect of their opportunities, the wholesalers and jobbers of San Francisco have lost the trade of the upper San Joaquin valley, a growing and prosperous section which is now buying in Los | a Angeles the supplies formerly bought in San Francisco. Formerly all the trade of the San Joaquin valley flowed to San Francisco and would be flowing there today had the metropolis cultivated the field and kept in touch with the development in the oil regions. But the same lack of commercial statesn anship that permitted the trade of Eastern Oregon and the Snake River valley to slip away for the enrichment of Portland has now allowed Los Angeles to reach across the Tchachapi and grab trade right from under San Francisco's nose. The loss thus, sustained is not to be recouped by passing resolutions demanding that every person employed in San Francisco should be required to reside in San Francisco or be discharged. As an expedient for making or inviting trade the policy disclosed in resolutions of this character are futile and pathetic. It is pathetic because it is fatuous and futile because it violates the fundamental principle on which commer fal prosperity is based. San Francisco lives on outside trade—the rade of non-residents—and outside trade is not fostered by a policy of proscription and the application of the boycott to was e-earners. The slogan that every person who makes a living in San Francisco should be compelled to dwell in San Francisco excites only decision and disgust. It is the cry of a selfishness that is as stupid and impotent as it is unjust. How does it sound to a man who lives outside of San Francisco to be told that "San Franciscans should trade only in San Francisco" is the text of speeches before commer ial bodies? Suppose other communities practiced the same precept—where would San Francisco be? Fancy such a suggestion being made in New York or Chicago! If anyhody believes that San Francisco can grow in commercial importance by adopting a Chitese policy of exclusion and proscription that person is to be pitied. San Francisco's competitors will pray for the adoption of such a policy. If a man in Los Angeles should propose that Los Angeles draw a dead line against Pasadena, Long Beach and other configuous towns he would be laughed at as a freak. But the idea seems to be fascinating to a certain order of intelligence in San Francisco, the city of all others on the Pacific Coast where it should be denied lodgement. San Francisco should reach out with enterprising vigor for the large trade of the coast instead of chibbing i few workmen into renting flats in the city and buying their groce ies, beer and tobacco in her shops. It is not upon such petter trade that the commerce of a city thrives. Permanent prosperity cannot be built upon a policy so narrow or methods so despicable.

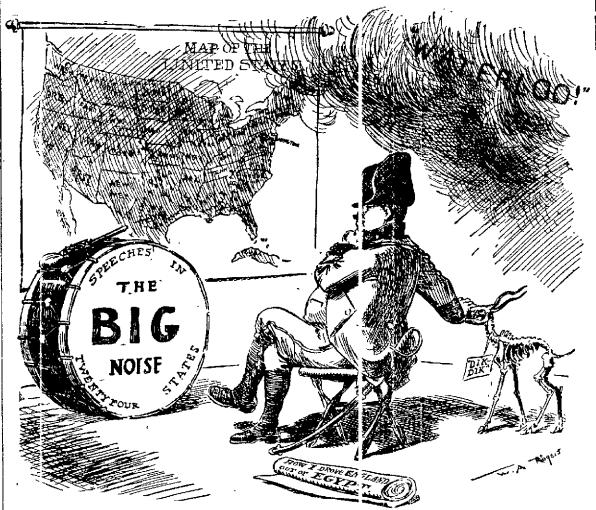

How to Treat the Boycolt.

The commercial bodies of Oakland are taking steps to make effective protest against the coercive methods of San Francisco employers who are threatening their employes with discharge unless they take up their residence in San Fran isco. It is time they did so. The coercion has become so open, persistent and brutal as to call for some public expression of resentment and disapproval. For a time it was denied that employers generally were giving their employes the alternative of discharge or moving back to the city, but that pretense is no longer made. All disguise has been thrown off and to dwell in Oakland is now speken of as in the nature of a wrong done to San Francisco. Improvement clubs and trade organizations are adopting resolutions demanding the discharge of all employes who reside outside the city limits of han Francisco. Some of the public service corporations have served notice in writing that their employes much either resign or reside in San Francisco, Merchants who advertise for the trade of Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Redwood City, San Mateo, Sausalito and San Rafiel are telling their employes that to reside in any of these places is to merit discharge. The Bul- a check to him. letin is openly cheering on this bulldozing, yet it has the effrontery to seek patro tage in the commutaties it is arging the employers of San Francisco to boycott. The name of every man or firm that thus declares war on the towns contiguous to San Francisco should be ascertained and published. Then the public will know with whom to deal in this matter; who to hold responsible and what method of corrective shall be applied. The way to teach the boycotters across the bay a lesson in fair play and neighborly comity is to touch the pocket nerve-withdraw patronage till the ban is

The only objection to Aiden Anterson thus far advanced is that he did not ask the permission of Chester Rowell, Meyer Lissner and Rudolph Spreckels to run for Governor. He is making his own have not left the railroad station campaign in his own way, paying his own expenses, and hence is regarded by the Rowell-Spreckels clique as a dangerous and reprehensible candidate. They bluntly say he is disqual fied for Governor because he is running without their permission. That he is not the man Friday of any boss, clique or interest is prec sely why Alden Anderson is worthy of the support of every good crizen and is admirably fitted public. for Governor.

Colonel Harris Weinstoc's presided at the opening of the Rowell-Johnson campaign in San Francisco. It is suggestive that Union depot here in Chicago and go the meeting was held in Dreamland Rink, a place deducated to roller to sleep; I wake up in the morning skaring and other diversions more exhibitating than intellectual. But that is another story, as Fudyard Kipling would say. entire stock of Men's, Ladies,' Boys' and Children's Shoes at prices that will make our store a regular beehive so long as the sale lasts. We have already engaged several extra shoe salesmen, and will be prepared to serve the crowds as quickly as possible. After sufficient cash is raised during the sale to pay this demand, the business will be continued under the name of "PARK SHOE CC." at the old stand, 475 14th street, Oakland; and with none but experienced shoe fitters to serve you with the best shoes that money can buy—at lower prices than you

Los Angeles Man Kills Spouse and Takes Own Life: Declares Wealthy Woman Was Not Murdered

LOS ANGELES, June 9.—Because, he said, his wife loved another and could not live without her nor die believing he would be supplanted, E. H. Cewell, a mining man, shot and killed his wife tonight and then fired a bull t into his own head. He died an hour later.

The murder and suicide followed a vain attempt at reconciliation made by Cowell today. Mrs. Cowell, who was Miss Violet Jessup, a 20-year-old gir. of San Diego, left her husband several weeks ago.

Fe met her as she left her place of employment this evening and shot ner it rough the heart. When he was taken to the hospital a note was found upon Cowell, in which he said his wife had transferred her affections and that he intended to kill her if she did not consent to return to him.

"I cannot live without her and I cannot die and leave her loving another,"

Wealthy Woman Not Murdered

(HICAGO, June 9,---While the death of Mrs. Fannic Surdam Stelle here Monday will be officially investigated, Coroner Hoffmann and detectives connerted with the care-today expressed the belief that the wealthy woman died of ma aral causes.

"No complete explanation of the situation is at hand," said Detective as follows: John Costello, last night, "but we are of the opinion that a strange combinadisposal. While this will suffice for the tion of circumstances has produced a string of occurrences not linked together. We have thoroughly investigated the case and are convinced that the d ath of Mrs. Stelle was from natural causes. This opinion is concurred in by physicians,"

I dgar S. Accetta, the singer and lawyer of New York who at one time was engaged to marry Mrs. Stelle and who is a beneficiary to the extent of $20,000 under the terms of her will, said:

Mrs. Stelle was my best friend. I met her eight years ago. She edu cated me in the law, paying all my expenses. I brought suit against her for $50,000 for breach of promise, but that was cettled out of court. I will not contest the will

Mrs. Stelle was in the habit of carrying money sewed in her clothing. Her lather lost thousands of dollars worth of property in the Chicago lire and sie considered it best to keep her cash where she could take it with her in case of fire. See possessed about $99,000 worth of diamonds and other jewel y. That was one of her hobbies."

Physicians and house detectives attending Mrs. Steele found $25,000 in curre my sewed in the linings of clothing she had on and $50,000 worth of
